THE EARTH'S BEST.

Our motto is proven by victories won, as birds in our yards have won in Boston, New York, Chicago, Denver, Pueblo and Cheyenne.

The White Langshans

In their purity. The best known strains.

Keesling Mottled Langshans,

Beauties, and quite rare.

MAMMOTH LIGHT BRAHMAS.

We have the largest sized and most vigorous breeders of this grand fowl in America.

BUFF LEGHORNS,

Direct from England by Mr. A. D. Arnold. No stock or eggs from these until November.

Our S. C. WHITE LEGHORNS — Knapp Strain — are sure winners and never beaten.

S. C. BROWN LEGHORNS. Beauties and high scoring.

BARRLED - PLYMOUTH - ROCKS.

Pen No. 1 — Thompson strain — is headed by Sweepstakes, Jr. This grand bird tied for first in the late Crystal Palace show in New York and lacked only one ounce in weight of winning first. Pens Nos. 2, 3, 4 and 5 are Hawkins strain and fine ones.

Our B. B. RED GAME BANTAMS take first wherever shown.

Ninety-two acres for yards and runs. A National Reputation, as we have sold and shipped to sixteen different states during the past season. If you mean business and want either reasonable price, expensive or show birds, write us and we can and will satisfy you on what you want.

POULTRY IS KING!

The Poultry crop of the United States is now three millions greater than the corn crop in dollars and cents, therefore, Poultry is King, and it is a very profitable business if properly conducted, and one of the best poultry papers to assist you to conduct it properly is a bright, crisp, clean, eight-page monthly Journal, costing only 25 cents per year, or 3 months on trial for one silver dime. It is each month crammed full of interesting reading matter upon all poultry topics. It is such a good little paper that every one takes it that sees it.

THE POULTRY NEWS,

As an advertising medium for breeders it is unexcelled. Its rates are fair and its "pulling" qualities great. A free sample copy will be sent to all who apply.

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

I shall be pleased to receive notices of any Errors, Omissions, or Suggestions whereby a Second Edition of this Directory may be made an improvement on this; also would be grateful for any new names sent.

FRED. R. CROCKER,
Publisher.
Provincetown, Mass., Nov. 1st, 1891.

To the Readers of this Book:

Cape Cod Eggs are known the world over and bring higher prices than the egg product of any other section.

Cape Cod Poultrymen are just beginning to learn that in order to get the best results it is necessary to get the very best strains of the very best breeds of birds. You can reach the Poultrymen of this section only through the local paper.

The Beacon circulates more largely than any other paper in the poultry raising regions of Cape Cod.

We will insert your ad. in the Beacon at a reasonable rate. The paper will interest you, as it is a family paper containing bright and original stories, music, Talmage's sermons weekly, and thousands of attractions. It is often illustrated. $1.50 per year, in advance.
